Philippines

- PAGASA has forecasted that #OmpongPH will enhance the Southwest Monsoon bringing occasional rain over Palawan, Mindoro Provinces and Western Visayas by 14 and 15 September. Keep yourself posted on the latest updates here.
- The typhoon is expected to traverse Cagayan – Batanes area on 15 September bringing heavy rains and strong winds over Northern Luzon and parts of Central and Southern Luzon.
- Estimated population directly affected by the typhoon: 1,216,566 people.
  - Batanes: 17,246 people
  - Cagayan: 1,199,320 people
- NDRRMC has raised their alert levels to RED and are working with relevant departments and concerned field offices for preparedness measures.
- Regions in the Northern Philippines ranging from Batanes to Mindanao are currently on alert and prepared for #OmpongPH.
- Storm surge of up to maximum height of 1 metre is forecasted and sea travel is strongly advised against. (Source: GDACS)
- A total of 356,349 family food packs; food and non-food items amounting to PHP 710,825,555 (USD 13,131,698.90) have been prepositioned.

Estimated Storm surge

Typhoon
(Maximum wind speed: Category 5)

DATA SOURCES

- AHA Centre Disaster Monitoring & Response System (DMRS)
- Pacific Disaster Center (PDC Global), Healthmap
- Joint Typhoon Warning Centre
- Philippines OWWD, NDRRMC, PAGASA, PhilDIS
- Global Disaster Alert and Coordination System

DISCLAIMER

The AHA Centre was established in November 2011 by the Association of South East Asian Nations (ASEAN) and ASEAN member states to facilitate cooperation and coordination among the Parties, relevant agencies of the United Nations and international organizations in disaster management and humanitarian assistance.

The use of boundaries, geographic names, related information and potential considerations for response are for reference, not warranted to be error free or implying official endorsement from ASEAN Member States.

© 2018 AHA Centre. All rights reserved. You are receiving this email because you are registered in our distribution list.